How Will You Fund Your Children's College Education?

How will you or your employees afford the high cost of education?

One of the most expensive undertakings you or your employees will ever face is funding your children's college education. F.A.C.T.S (Financial Aid Concepts & Tuition Strategies) works with employers and employees to bring a valuable benefit to you and your organization through educational workshops and individual one-on-one consultations.

Are you interested in providing an invaluable employee benefit at NO COST to your organization?

Our educational workshops are designed to provide a real-world approach that helps both you and your employees prepare themselves and their children for college while minimizing the stress of out-of-pocket college expenses. We will help educate you and your employees on a myriad of topics.

Join us for networking, breakfast and this valuable presentation, hosted by IABCN member, Tim Schlegel of 1847 Financial, and Trevin Panaia of FACTS College Planning.
