

HUNGER ON TRIAL-be a part of history

YOU ARE CHARGED with the murder of more than a million Irish who died during An Gorta Mor (The Great Hunger) in the years 1846 - 1847. These were needless deaths. Even without the potato, there was more than enough food produced in Ireland to feed everyone in the country and still have food left over. The action - or lack of action- taken by your group led to untold misery. YOU ARE TO BLAME!

The following have been served: BRITISH LANDLORDS; ANGLICAN CHURCH;
BRITISH GOVERNMENT AND IRISH TENANT FARMERS

All are ordered to appear in the courtroom of the Honorable Patrick F. Dugan, President Judge, Municipal Court

Session 1

When- Wednesday March 27th 10:30 AM

Where- Courtroom 653 Philadelphia City Hall

Who- High School Students and interested parties

Session 2

When- Saturday- March 30th 10:30 AM

Where- Courtroom 653 Philadelphia City Hall

Who- Everyone's invited- limited to first 200

Everyone in attendance will play a role in this riveting courtroom drama- sponsored by the Irish Memorial, Inc.

Contact- Bob Gessler, 215.806.7298 or bob@gesslergroup.com