Ambassador Award Honoree

KPMG, Accepting on behalf of KPMG – David Greed, Managing Partner, Philadelphia Office

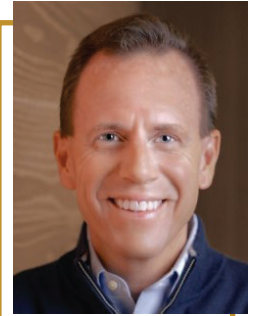

KPMG stands as one of the world's leading professional services firms, renowned for its dynamic presence and commitment to excellence. As the fastest-growing Big Four accounting firm in the United States, KPMG boasts a network of over 75 offices and more than 40,000 employees and partners across the nation. This vast reach allows KPMG to remain agile and responsive, constantly adapting to evolving industry trends and forging new paths in the market.

For over 125 years, KPMG has proudly served its clients, communities, and each other. Their distinct culture, shaped by the collective behaviors of its incredible personnel, sets them apart. Past and present employees have played a crucial role in building a remarkable legacy, contributing to the ever-evolving story of KPMG.

KPMG is Ireland's leading accounting firm with 102 partners and nearly 3000 employees spread across their offices in Belfast, Cork, Dublin and Galway. They offer audit, tax, advisory and consulting services to international and domestic clients in all sectors. KPMG traces its history in Ireland back to 1876 with the opening of Stokes Brothers in Dublin.

Throughout its history, KPMG has played a pivotal role in the capital markets. Through close collaboration, they deliver exceptional service and consistently drive innovation for their clients. This dedication extends beyond the professional sphere, as KPMG takes immense pride in the positive impact it has made on the communities it calls home since its inception.

Taoiseach Award Honorees

Sister Mary Scullion & Ms. Joan Dawson McConnon
Co-Founders, Project HOME

Since 1989, Project HOME has helped thousands of people break the cycle of homelessness and poverty by providing a continuum of services that includes street outreach, supportive housing at our 20 residences and 1,038 units of affordable and supportive housing, comprehensive health care services at our Stephen Klein Wellness Center, and employment and education programming at our state-of-the-art

Honickman Learning Center Comcast Technology Labs. We also operate the Hub of Hope in Suburban Station, a walk-in engagement center for people experiencing homelessness, and the Helen Brown Community Center, our community hub in the 19121 neighborhood.

Uachtarán Award Honorees

The Philadelphia Gaelic Athletic Association

Nestled in the heart of Philadelphia, the Philadelphia Gaelic Athletic Association (Philadelphia GAA) is a vibrant community dedicated to preserving and promoting Irish culture through the traditional sports of Gaelic football, hurling, and camogie. Founded in 1928, it's one of the oldest and most active GAA divisions in the United States, boasting a rich history and a passionate following.

More than just a sports club, the Philadelphia GAA is a cornerstone of the Irish-American community in Philadelphia. It provides a platform for people of all ages and backgrounds to connect with their heritage, stay active, and build lasting friendships. Through leagues, tournaments, and cultural events, the GAA fosters a sense of belonging and celebrates the unique traditions of Ireland.
