John F. McCaul Elected to MontCo Anti-Hunger Network Board of Directors

MONTGOMERY COUNTY, PA. May 4, 2024: Hamburg, Rubin, Mullin, Maxwell & Lupin is pleased to announce that John F. McCaul has been elected to the board of directors for the MontCo Anti-Hunger Network (MAHN).

According to the MAHN website, "By leading coordinated action, MontCo Anti-Hunger Network strengthens the food security safety net system in Montgomery County, PA." The network was "founded by Catholic Social Services, Keystone Opportunity Center, Manna on Main Street, Pottstown Cluster of Religious Communities, and The Open Link." Additional information can be found at www.montcoantihunger.org.

John F. McCaul, an experienced criminal defense and personal injury attorney, began his career as a prosecutor in the Chester County District Attorney's Office where he prosecuted thousands of felony and misdemeanor cases, including some of its most complicated cases. In addition to his courtroom experience, John led long-term investigations into both white-collar theft and violent crimes. He also supervised the Investigating and Indicting Grand Juries and was eventually cross-designated as a Special Assistant United States Attorney (SAUSA) with the United States Attorney's Office. John now uses all this inside knowledge and experience as a former prosecutor to fight for his clients. He zealously defends the rights of those who have been accused of serious criminal offenses, including Murder, Robbery, Burglary, Domestic Abuse, White Collar Theft, Gun Charges, Drug Charges, and DUI. John also represents individuals who have suffered medical malpractice, catastrophic personal injury, are victims of crime, sexual assault and institutional abuse, motor vehicle accidents and premises liability. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Montgomery Anti-Hunger Network ("MAHN"). A graduate of Temple University Beasley School of Law (J.D., 2015), John is a proud graduate of Penn State University (B.A., 2011), and is an avid Nittany Lions football fan.
